TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990
(as amended by the Planning and Compensation Act 1991)

ENFORCEMENT NOTICE

ISSUED BY: The Council of the City of Newcastle upon Tyne ("the Council")

1. THIS NOTICE is issued by the Council because it appears to them that there has been a breach of planning control, within Section 171A(1)(a) of the above Act, at the land described below. They consider that it is expedient to issue this Notice, having regard to the provisions of the development plan and to other material planning considerations. The Annex at the end of the Notice and the enclosures to which it refers contain important additional information.

2. THE LAND TO WHICH THE NOTICE RELATES

87 Meldon Terrace, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE6 5XQ shown edged with a red line on attached plan ("the Property")

3. THE MATTERS WHICH APPEAR TO CONSTITUTE THE BREACH OF PLANNING CONTROL

Without planning permission, the material change of use of the Property from use as a dwelling house by a single person or by people regarded as forming a single household (Use Class C3) to short stay commercial visitor accommodation (Sui Generis)

4. REASONS FOR ISSUING THIS NOTICE

It appears to the Council that the above breach of planning control has occurred within the last ten years.

The material change of use of the Property to short stay commercial visitor accommodation results in the loss of a good quality, spacious and convenient dwelling suitable for occupation by a family by reason of its location and level of amenity, prejudicing the objective of providing attractive, sustainable and balanced communities. The change of use is therefore not in accordance with advice contained with the National Planning Policy Framework, policy CS9 of the Core Strategy and Urban Core Plan for Gateshead and Newcastle upon Tyne and Saved Policy H2 of the Unitary Development Plan.

The material change of use of the Property to short stay commercial visitor accommodation results in increased noise and disturbance for the occupiers of existing nearby dwellings to the detriment of their residential amenity. The material change of use is therefore contrary to advice contained with the National Planning Policy Framework, Policy CS14 of the Core Strategy and Urban Core Plan for Gateshead and Newcastle upon Tyne and saved Policy H2 of the Unitary Development Plan

5. WHAT YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DO

- (i) Cease the use of the Property for short stay commercial visitor accommodation

EXPLANATORY NOTE

YOUR RIGHT OF APPEAL

You can appeal against this Notice, but any appeal must be received, or posted in time to be received, by the Secretary of State (at the Planning Inspectorate) before the date specified in paragraph 7 of the Notice. An information sheet from the Planning Inspectorate is enclosed which also contains important information about appealing against this Enforcement Notice and how appeal forms can be obtained and submitted.

Under section 174 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) you may appeal on one or more of the following grounds:

- (a) that, in respect of any breach of planning control which may be constituted by the matters stated in the notice, planning permission ought to be granted or, as the case may be, the condition or limitation concerned ought to be discharged;
- (b) that those matters have not occurred;
- (c) that those matters (if they occurred) do not constitute a breach of planning control;
- (d) that, at the date when the notice was issued, no enforcement action could be taken in respect of any breach of planning control which may be constituted by those matters;
- (e) that copies of the enforcement notice were not served as required by section 172;
- (f) that the steps required by the notice to be taken, or the activities required by the notice to cease, exceed what is necessary to remedy any breach of planning control which may be constituted by those matters or, as the case may be, to remedy any injury to amenity which has been caused by any such breach;
- (g) that any period specified in the notice in accordance with section 173(9) falls short of what should reasonably be allowed.

If you do wish to appeal then you must submit to the Secretary of State, either when giving notice of appeal or within 14 days from the date on which the Secretary of State sends you a notice requesting you to do so, a statement in writing specifying the grounds on which you are appealing against the Enforcement Notice and stating briefly the facts on which you propose to rely in support of each of those grounds.

If you appeal the Enforcement Notice and wish a deemed planning application also to be considered there will be a fee of £924 payable to the City of Newcastle upon Tyne.
